

Mary & Martha

Luke 10:38-42

Now it happened as they went that He entered a certain village; and a certain woman named Martha welcomed Him into her house. And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet and heard His word. But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she approached Him and said, "Lord, do You not care that my sister has left me to serve alone? Therefore tell her to help me." And Jesus answered and said to her, "Martha, Martha, you are worried and troubled about many things. But one thing is needed, and Mary has chosen that good part, which will not be taken away from her."

An open Bible is the central focus, lying flat on a light-colored surface. The pages are filled with text, though the words are not clearly legible. The Bible is surrounded by lush greenery, including several sprigs of leaves and a small potted plant in the upper right corner. To the right of the Bible, there is a dark-colored coffee pot and a matching cup. The overall scene is set against a background of light-colored, possibly white, coffee grounds or a similar textured surface. The text is overlaid in a bold, black, sans-serif font.

Martha was distracted.

Mary chose the good part.

Disciples must be balanced.